u3a
Matlock Area

WEEKLY BULLETIN ISSUE NUMBER 6

week commencing 8th March 2021

All the website links included below are from public trusted sources. However, please follow the instructions that your personal security software prompts to activate the link.

Here are a few ideas for upcoming public events that may be of interest to you or you may like to participate in.

1. International Women's Day was on the 8th March

   To celebrate this, Chesterfield Museum are highlighting some of our local inspirational women - Violet Markham, Lady Olave Baden Powell, Martha Robinson and Barbara Castle. Click on the link below to find out more from Chesterfield Museum's archives.

   International Women's Day

2. Cromford Mill News

   Cromford Mills has announced it will be partnering with leading British artist Hetain Patel in the latest round of the Arts&Heritage initiative Meeting Point. For more information on this and other planned activities, click on the following link.

   Cromford Mills

3. The London No-One Tells You About

   A free online talk on 11th March at 4pm.
   Geoff Harris is a wonderful raconteur; he introduces London from his own offbeat angle and tells his stories with a vigour and humour that'll hold your attention from brothel keeping bishops to Nelson's second hand tomb. To register, click on the link below.

   London Talk

4. Women's History Month

   Mark Women's History Month with our programme of online talks. You can also discover more about How UK Parliament Works in our free online workshop and explore inside the Palace of Westminster with a guided online tour. For more information on the free online talks, click on the link below.

   UK Parliament Free Talks

If you have any comments or hear of a local event that you think other Matlock u3a members may be interested in, please email Tracy Sims at publicity@matlockareau3a.org.uk