

WEEKLY BULLETIN ISSUE NUMBER 10

week commencing 12th April 2021

All the website links included below are from public trusted sources. However, please follow the instructions that your personal security software prompts to activate the link.

Here are a few ideas for upcoming public events that may be of interest to you or you may like to participate in.

Firstly, a reminder – Our next entertainment slot will be held on 26th April at 3pm. The speaker is Chris O’Grady who has spent a lifetime hunting down, buying and selling art and antiques. The presentation will include numerous stories of money gained and money lost, of scoundrels exploiting the naïve and extraordinary finds in the most unlikely of places.

1. Barclays Digital Eagles

The National u3a has teamed up with Barclays to offer a series of free sessions, commencing 19th April. Sessions include Internet Basics, Digital Safety, Entertainment Online. For more details click on the following link.

Barclays Digital Eagles

2. Scam Alerts

Which? Sign up to free scam alerts to get the latest on emerging scams, how to avoid them and the steps to take if you’ve lost money. Read more at:

Which? Alerts

3. The Great Courses Daily – Free Video Lectures.

The Future of Evolution - What Darwin didn’t know and many more free lectures. Click on the link to find out more about the many free videos available.

Great Courses Daily

4. London Zoo

If you can’t make a visit in person, have a look at their videos. Say ‘hello’ to their very squeaky otters or meet the meerkats. Click on the following link to enjoy more animal antics:

London Zoo

If you have any comments or hear of a local event that you think other Matlock u3a members may be interested in, please email Tracy Sims at publicity@matlockareau3a.org.uk