

DAD'S CYCLING HOLIDAY QUIZ

1. Meadow; club
2. Situated in the lea bridges were abundant
3. A depression, a vote in the affirmative, but remove a point
4. Legendry medieval outlaw
5. That which, to tolerate, a lift shaft
6. There is an amber gate in front of that house
7. A measure for comparing the intensity of noises, for each
8. A shortened metric measurement, a water crossing
9. A stiff flour pudding boiled in a bag but remove a note, the locality of a battle
10 Everything, spell the 19 th letter of the alphabet, a large plant.
11. A very good make of porcelain is made here
12. There is one in Australia
13. LAZED A CUSHY HOB
14. A trap, weight
15. CORSSWTY
16. ADEFNNORTYY
17. Sounds like this lady monk has consumed a meal
18. Is this bed worth £1,000?
19. To ostracize
20. LIKE THROWN
21. Dionne?
22. They went across the heath ending at the lake
23. POUR ON NO VAST DRAFT
24. Fresh, daring; thereon; one spelling of formidable
25. HEAL NO SAT
26. Additional, weight; trendy; swamp
27. To put away; directed towards; definite article; an open tract of country
28. O HEAR TOWN NO BUTTER
29. A ditch; a support for a billiard cue
30. DANNY MEW SOP (Down Apmney got half a mark, I can see where it is but was off the actual route)
31. CENSER TRICE
32. Take the old fugitive's surname but change a vowel
33. Include tungsten in immature and add two fifties
34. Calcareous loam, add two points, inter
35. Cooked potato, writing implement, a cooked meat
36. An expression of surprise, pretence
37. A place for a good wash
38. Shortened form of a line in a circle, supply of goods
39. Sounds like what happens about the 21 st June; neither, one hundred
40. An emerald could be described as this
41. A lot of villages in Derbyshire dress these
42. Bruce and Mick were here!
43. The potatoes were chipped well and very moreish!

44. Turn a casserole; telling fibs (MY ERROR AN "T" ADDED both versions accepted
45. To goad, reverse a negative
46. TRIM N VOLE
47. BLOW ICE SLIME (ONE "L" SHOULD BE A "V" )
48. Take a shortened unit of current but add a note and a weight
49. The direction on the M1 if you are travelling from Derby to London; sounds like melted metal
50. Excellent; take violently hot but remove the identification, add scrambled harmonising colour
51. A small ball or disc for swallowing; where you put it first
52. To remain, river crossing
53. Is this female sprite angry?
54. Add two fifties and a question to a division of a bulb of garlic
55. Sounds like these rabbits are angry
56. Take something found in a bathroom and remove the drink, add a river crossing
57. Attached to the farmhouse was a barn, stable and a pig sty (Sorry I always thought there was a "B" in this name)
58. A factory, urban area
59. DINT BOAT
60. BAIL FROM CE
61. Take a hair tool and add a note; a bird of the swallow genus
62. Brooklyn tongues
63 Add a point to a cleaning cloth
64. To decree, iodine, weight.
65. EIKLV
66. From the top of the hill we could see the bridge, water was missing as it had been diverted
67. Mouse coloured, dance
68. The railway line went over the high bridge
69. The cockerel crowed more today than yesterday
70. Cheese
71. CHE DOG GRADER
72. TO DISC
73. There was a ban well into the next month
74. Why not go west on Super Mare next week?
75. He wished he was elsewhere
76. BUNGS CRY ORE
77. The fibres from this plant make linen; take a bass stop in an organ but change one letter for a drink
78. Deal or No Deal is filmed here
79. Halve stone pillars
80. While boating on the river Cam bridge your hunger with a picnic
81. Dr Foster didn't like this place
82. The longer spelling of a short steep valley; small mountain
83. TRY WEE BUSK
84. Sound like a number; mend the fire
85. MEEK SPY

86. Fine woollen material was made at this place
87. MERE L BOYS
88. Angry, direction; traffic light colour
89. We have had a hot one this year, you may have sat here for a picnic
90. A joker, a priory church
91. Take a day of the week, remove three letters and add inter
92. Walloon, remove the question from part of a bell rope
93. Dirt, meadow; a awkward position
94. FILL CHIDE
95. REAL SAW
96. A tackle of two or three blocks; thereon; river that passed through Nottingham
97. There is little over the other side of the road
98. Go under by the bypass
99. REAL STEEL
100. Enclose a turn between two notes, speciality
101. His name was Emil Ford
102. In the picnic there was one babybel per person
103. Yellowish fossil resin, number attending a game
104. THAW TELLS WAND
105. They say Robin Hood lived in Sherwood Forest
106. Sounds like a path in the valley?
107. Fallow; anything that connects across a gap
108. Measure of yarn (80 yards of worsted); timber